

Centralize the management of all of your trackers thanks to TagCapsule!

Had enough of all those tags?

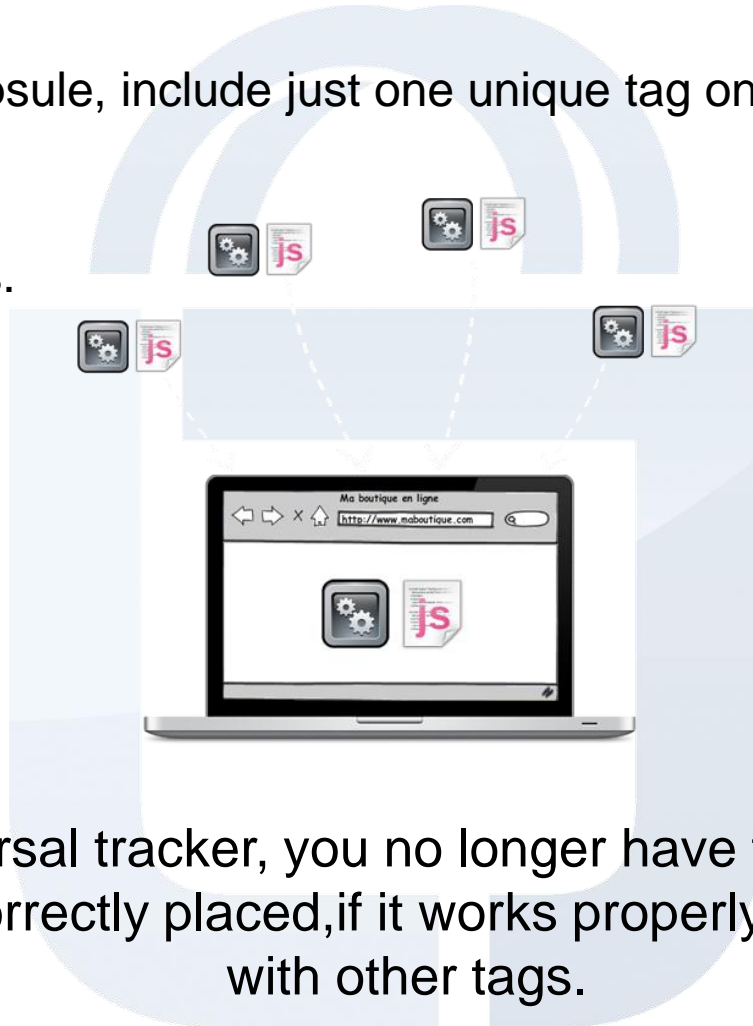

Looking to centralize the management of your partner tags?

A Unique Tracker

With TagCapsule, include just one unique tag on your website!

Directly inject partner tags.

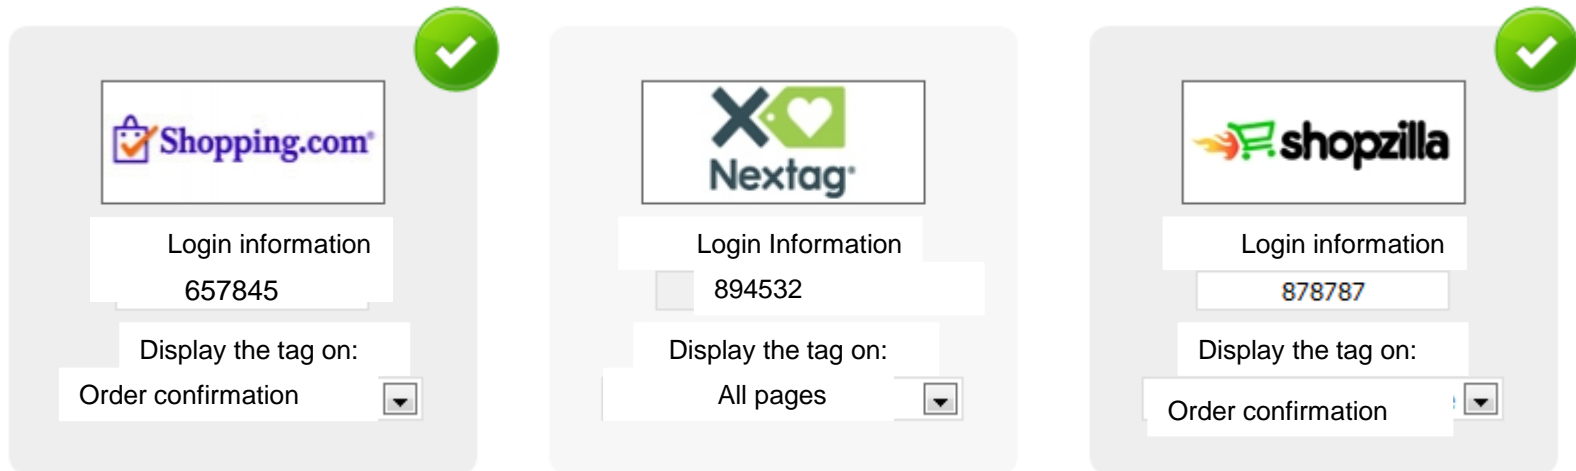

A simple and practical interface.

Thanks to this universal tracker, you no longer have to worry about whether your tag has been correctly placed, if it works properly or if it is going to clash with other tags.

Complete Independence

You no longer have to call upon your technical team to set up tags!

You can freely choose which trackers you wish to encapsulate and TagCapsule takes care of distributing the trackers with each display.

Three configuration panels are shown, each with a green checkmark in a circle in the top right corner. Each panel contains a logo at the top, a text field for "Login information", a text field for a user ID, a label "Display the tag on:", and a dropdown menu.

- Shopping.com: Login information: 657845; Display the tag on: Order confirmation
- Nextag: Login Information: 894532; Display the tag on: All pages
- shopzilla: Login information: 878787; Display the tag on: Order confirmation

A Time Saver

The pages of your website will no longer include several tags, but just the one!

You will save a considerable amount of time when loading your pages!

TagCapsule has close to 18 trackers in its data bank with many more to come!
